3:45:55 Ralph Daloisio: Weed is only a "dirty business" if looked at from the antiquated perspective that alcohol and prescription meds were ever a "clean" business. Weed is "green" actually and figuratively by comparison.

3:47:00 F S: This is called weed maps

3:47:23 F S: you should try to partner with weed maps everything you are saying is already established on an app "weed maps"

3:47:51 John Nemanic: Over 320 at peak, in the low 200's

3:48:14 John Nemanic: curenly

3:53:02 Nathan Zeke: How will you handle payments?

3:53:06 Ralph Daloisio: Dude, do you think these things look phallic? Don't we need a more gender friendly design? This industry genuinely and perhaps ironically has the opportunity to create an image that is unbiased.

4:12:31 Nathan Zeke: $2B isn't a lot of TAM with several competitors.

4:13:17 Dr. David Cunic: great questions everyone

4:13:35 Simon Gonzales: Terpil...like smarts in technology. Let's keep an open mind.

4:14:26 Ralph Daloisio: totally agree. I'm an MJ and CBD idiot. Tried some Happy Hemp gummy bears and had no idea if I should take 1 or 4. Had to research the product and experiment on my own to get the sleep promoting effect I wanted. AND the product was labelled with an associated website for further information. Not UX friendly in an era where UX ease and convenience is becoming paramount
